

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:*Dandrea Gains PTI Insights from RedLine Solutions Consulting Services

Santa Clara, CA, January 11, 2012—RedLine Solutions announced that it has completed the free PTI consultation won by Dandrea Produce Company at the PMA Fresh Summit in Atlanta. Gary Fleming, VP of Strategic Services at RedLine Solutions performed the on-site consultation for Dandrea, located in Vineland, New Jersey.

The focus of the consultation was to educate Dandrea's management team about PTI compliance and help them make informed decisions on which steps to take to reach their goals. During his visit, Gary was also able to make specific recommendations on how to integrate PTI compliance with Dandrea's existing packing lines and processes.

"We found the PTI Consulting from RedLine extremely valuable," said Jana Dandrea, Operations Manager, Dandrea Produce. "We had heard conflicting things from various vendors which had left us confused. Gary Fleming knows the PTI inside and out. He was able to help us separate the realities from the myths and provide clear direction on what we need to do next to meet our customer's PTI requirements."

Todd Baggett, CEO of RedLine Solutions explained, "We're committed to helping growers, packers, and shippers become PTI compliant. Gary's background and experience in helping to create the PTI makes him one of the best people to guide companies through this process. We're pleased to provide Dandrea and our other customers with actionable guidance on how to achieve PTI compliance within their organization."
